The Library at the Edge of the World

A Fond Farewell Maria Alda Lopez

Following 26 years of devoted service, Maria retires from the Elizabeth Public Library at the end of January. A warm and welcoming presence at the LaCorte Branch, Maria will be much missed by the parents and children to whom she was a friend and a guide. Noting that Maria is “the consummate professional,” Branch Manager Robert Barbanel adds that Maria “managed LaCorte with a grace that seemed effortless but was the result of hard work.” Please join us in thanking Maria for her care and devotion. We will miss her!

Public Memorial Project
Liberating the Lost Souls: Remembering Lives Stolen in 1818

In 1818, from February through October, one of the most notorious slave rings in the nation operated out of the home of a corrupt Middlesex County judge who resided in what is now East Brunswick. This “abominable business” resulted in 177+ African Americans being forcibly sent into permanent slavery in the Deep South. The history, while not wholly forgotten, had been whitewashed. We know 138 of their names (and the existence of 39 more whose names have been lost, so far). A grassroots group plans to build a public memorial that remembers them and this history, that we might bring some small measure of healing to the national wound that is race in this nation. Come hear about the history and the efforts to build the Lost Souls Public Memorial.

Presenters:
Kristal Langford, curriculum developer, Lost Souls Public Memorial Project.
Doctoral student, Rutgers University, New Brunswick.
Dr. Peter Kahn, member, Lost Souls Public Memorial Project. Professor of Biochemistry, Rutgers University, New Brunswick.
