After 89 years educating students from not only Elizabeth, but surrounding communities as well, St. Mary’s of the Assumption High School closed its doors this summer. To help preserve the history of this great institution, the Elizabeth Public Library’s Local History & Special Collections Dept. reached out to the school and accepted a donation of 146 St. Mary’s yearbooks, spanning 1943 through 2019, to add to its yearbook collection. Go to www.elizpl.org and utilize the library’s online catalog to view our yearbook holdings. For more information on the Local History & Special Collections Dept. visit us at www.elizpl.org/localhistory.html

The City Of Elizabeth presents

REENTRY WEEK 2019

23 Sept.
5:30-8:00 PM

Recover
Join us for a film screening and empowering discussion on the plea deal process with the Office of Public Defender; family stress after incarceration; and media influence on issues.

24 Sept.
10:00 AM-4:00 PM

Renew
Join us as we offer legal advice on various issues from child support, DL concerns and warrants to court "self-help" initiatives and developing criminal justice reform.

25 Sept.
1:00-7:00 PM

Refresh
Refresh your image as you embark on a new journey. You’ll leave here with something new, whether it’s a fresh haircut, crisp business suit or an unbeatable attitude. The next job is yours!

26 Sept.
1:30-4:30 PM

Rejuvenate
Evaluate your next move by connecting with the many resources Union County has to offer, to pursue the next step of your journey. Come talk to them and see what’s up!
