RFID IS COMING!

Over the next several months, the Library will be making a significant upgrade in the management of its collections. At the September Board meeting, Library trustees approved the implementation of RFID, or Radio Frequency Identification, which allows for speedier check-out and check-in of materials. All print items at both the Main Library and the Elmora Branch will be fitted with an RFID ‘tag’ which will identify a book title and ownership by EPL. New security gates will be installed at entrances at Main and Elmora, and a self-check-out station is planned for the Children’s Room at Main.

Barcodes will continue to help us identify books, but importantly - we will begin to eliminate due-date stamps on print materials. Your printed receipt would be your record of items you have checked out. You will still be able to view information about your account online, by accessing our catalog https://lmac.ent.sirsii.net/client/en_US/elizabeth/# and clicking on Log In or My Account. Our catalog and other resources are also available through our mobile app, LMxPRESS PLUS, free from the Apple Store or Google Play. As ever, you can login with your library card and the default pin, which is the year of your birth.

Sue & Josh Rosenfeld, cousins of former Elizabeth resident Judy Blume, visit the Library’s children’s room with staff Brianna Gillen & Claudia Flores and Library Director Mary Faith Chmiel. The Rosenfelds made a generous donation to the Fudge Bunch Club in recognition of Judy’s 81st birthday!

Clever Rachel

By Moses Goldberg

Can girls be as smart as boys? This story, based on a medieval Jewish folktale, answers that question, which back in a Jewish community in 19th century Poland, wasn’t such an obvious answer. Come find out how Rachel uses her intellectual gifts to prove that not all traditional roles fit all people, and that girls indeed are just as smart as boys.
